Dear Ms. Ortiz,

Thank you for your letter dated January 10, 2014 (attached) which states in part:

"In response to your request, the EPA Region 6 Superfund Division is providing copies of responsive documents within the FOIA Online Module for your review. You will be notified electronically when your documents become available."

Further on, with regard to my options for appealing this response as a denial, you state: "Your appeal must be made in writing, and it must be submitted no later than 30 calendar days after the date of this letter."

Since, as of today (January 13, 2014), the responsive documents have not yet been made available to me, electronically or otherwise, I am not able to begin the review process, a necessary step before deciding to appeal, if I do.

Therefore, I request that the time limit for submitting my appeal to EPA Headquarters be counted from the date upon which the responsive documents are actually made available for my review, which has not happened yet.

Charles Grisham, Jr.
